

The believers met in an area of the Temple.
So many miracles kept happening
that sick people were laid on beds on the street,
in the hope that at least Peter's shadow
would cover them as he walked past.
People came from the towns near Jerusalem,
bringing their sick,
and all of the sick were healed
(Acts 5)

*Philip proclaimed Jesus in a Samaritan town.
The Samaritans welcomed Philip's message
because of the miracles he worked. Unclean spirits came out of many possessed people, and a number of handicapped people were cured. Such miracles caused great rejoicing in that town
(Acts 8)*

Peter visited churches in many areas.
In Lydda, he saw a man named Aeneas,
a paralytic who had been bed-ridden for 8 years.
Peter said to him "Aeneas, Jesus Christ cures you.
Get up and fold up your sleeping mat"
Aeneas got up immediately.
The people of that area who saw him
were converted to the Lord
(Acts 9)
