

Gospel of Luke 18: 35-43

As Jesus entered the town of Jericho, there was a blind beggar by the side of the road. When the blind man heard that Jesus was passing by, he called out, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!"

Some people told him to keep quiet, but he called out even more loudly "Son of David, have pity on me!" Jesus asked him, "What do you want?" The man replied "Sir, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Receive back your sight; your faith has saved you." At that moment, his sight returned, and he followed Jesus along the road, praising God at the top of his voice.

*Honor the doctor. His healing skill is a gift from God.
God has given us medicines from the earth,
and the sensible person will not despise them.*
